FIGHTING CEASES.

Heavy Rains and Impassable Roads Compelled a Suspension of Operations.

NEW DISPOSITION OF THE FORCES.

Kuropatkin is Extending His Right and the Japs Appear to be Shifting to the Westward.

Russians Have Recovered From the Blow Inflicted and Will Renew the Struggle as Soon as the Roads Are Dry.

St. Petersburg, Oct. 20.—For the moment heavy rains and impassable roads have compelled a suspension of operations in Manchuria. There was little fighting Wednesday and none whatever Wednesday night.

There is evidence of a new disposition of the forces on both sides, Gen. Kuropatkin is extending his right, whether with a view to a turning movement for the safety of Lone Tree hill, the importance of which is fully realized by the Japanese, who have attempted to retake it in two night attacks, or whether to meet and thwart a Japanese turning movement from the west, has not yet developed. The Japanese also appear to be shifting weight to the westward.

Veiled hints continue to arrive that the Russians have recovered from the blow inflicted last week by Field Marshal Oyama, and that Gen. Kuropatkin is preparing to renew the struggle as soon as the roads become dry. Two dispatches from Mukden mention reports that the Japanese already are preparing to retire, and the war office admits that Kuropatkin's left has again moved slightly forward; but there is no light upon the movements of the Japanese.

There is no late news from Tokio; and an enemy so resourceful may really be preparing a surprise movement instead of a retreat, relieving the pressure on the front with a view to accomplish it from the southwest on the flank.

Many critics continue to believe that Gen. Kuropatkin intends to return to the line of the Hun river.

The enforced cessation of operations by the bad weather, if the Japanese offensive had really exhausted itself, gives both armies a chance to breathe and pull themselves together and would seem to insure as much benefit to one side as to the other for practical purposes. When operations recommence they will assume an entirely new phase, with new dispositions and objectives. Last week's battle has ended, and it goes into history as a Russian defeat. When operations are resumed a new battle will begin.

The movement of troops on the European Russian western frontier and the preparations to reduce garrisons in this region, revive talk of a complete understanding with Germany, under which the frontier will be protected so as to permit of the dispatch to Manchuria of troops stationed in Poland. There are about 600,000 soldiers in Poland, comprising some of the best troops in the empire. It is already known that all of three corps in the vilna government will be included in Gen. Gripenberg's army.

HERO FUND COMMISSION.

No Awards of Medals or Benefits To Be Made Before January 18.

Pittsburg, Pa., Oct. 20.—At a meeting of the Carnegie hero fund commission it was decided that no awards of medals or benefits will be made by the Carnegie hero fund commission before the next meeting of the commission, which has been fixed for January 18, 1905. At that time the executive committee of the organization is expected to report on the 59 cases now under consideration and medals and benefits will probably be awarded at the coming meeting.

Tokio, Oct. 20.—It is officially stated that hand bombs, recently adopted by the defenders of Port Arthur, have been effective and have caused considerable loss of life.

STRAINED RELATIONS.

Secretary of War Will Go To Panama to Straighten Matters.

Washington, Oct. 20.—President Roosevelt has instructed Secretary of War Taft to make a personal visit to the Isthmus of Panama and there to confer with the president and other officials of the Panama government regarding questions arising out of possession by the United States of the canal zone.

The secretary will leave probably November 14, and is directed to take with him such persons as he may desire.

An open rupture between the two countries has been barely averted. The feeling in Panama against the United States has been most bitter, and has gone so far as to occasion threats of dynamiting the capital, and resorting to other violent methods of expressing the disapproval of the people at the attitude of the United States.

THE AUDIENCE DISMISSED.

A Fire Next Door to the Theater Was the Cause.

Chicago, Oct. 20.—Fire Wednesday night caused the dismissal of the audience in the Haymarket theater, although there was no blaze in the theater proper. A fire broke out in the building next door to the theater and as it proved difficult to subdue, the management of the theater caused the steel curtain to be lowered, all the exits to be thrown open and the audience was informed that the performance, which was only half finished, would be discontinued. The people filed out without any panic and in complete ignorance of the fire next door. The blaze was confined to the building in which it originated and caused a damage of several thousand dollars. Two firemen were slightly hurt by the explosion of a quantity of colloid.

STRUCK BY AN ENGINE.

A Young Man Gave Up His Life to Save His Sweetheart.

McKeesport, Pa., Oct. 20.—James L. Curley, aged 21, a draughtsman at the East Pittsburg works of the Westinghouse Electric Co., Wednesday night gave up his life to save his sweetheart. Curley and a companion named Myers were escorting Misses Walters and Kessler to their homes and while crossing the Baltimore & Ohio tracks at Eleventh street, a switch engine suddenly bore down upon them. Curley gave the alarm in time for Mr. Myers and Miss Kessler to reach safety, but he and Miss Walters were a step or two behind the first couple and Curley seized Miss Walters and threw her bodily clear of the track. Before he could recover his balance the locomotive cut him to pieces.

FIRE OVER A THEATER.

Audience Sat Through the Performance Unconscious of the Fact.

Syracuse, N. Y., Oct. 20.—An audience that crowded the Bastable theater sat through the performance Wednesday night unconscious that half the city's fire department was fighting a fire two floors above the theater. So perfect were the precautions taken by the theater management, the police and fire officials that, although the streets outside were jammed with excited people, not one in the big audience knew anything was wrong until water began to drip from the ceilings. Then the audience was told that a pipe had burst, and no trouble was experienced.

AT MILITARY POSTS

Episcopalians to Petition Congress For Separate Structures For Worship.

MARRIAGE AND DIVORCE CANON.

House of Deputies Made an Attempt to Arrange a Compromise With the House of Bishops.

Resolution Offered Compelling Divorced Persons Seeking Remarriage to Wait One Year After Court Decree Is Issued.

Boston, Oct. 20.—An attempt was made Wednesday by the committee on canons of the Episcopal house of deputies to arrange a compromise between that body and the house of bishops. The bishops had adopted an amendment forbidding the remarriage of divorced persons, while the deputies had declined to accept so rigid a provision notwithstanding the fact that a majority of them took a stand similar to that of the house of bishops. The committee on canons offered a resolution compelling divorced persons seeking remarriage to wait one year after the decree of the court has been issued before the solemnization of the ceremony. By this reason, which referred to the innocent person in a divorce for infidelity only, it was hoped to secure at least a temporary agreement between the two forces.

The deputies devoted a large part of the day to the consideration of a request from several dioceses for permission to use the revised version of the Bible in churches. When the house was divided, the request was refused by a majority of both clerical and lay delegates.

In the house of bishops, Bishop Henry C. Potter, of New York, chairman of the standing committee on the relations of capital and labor, read a lengthy report which touched upon certain evils, the committee found and discussed the industrial situation at length.

The deputies after some discussion voted to appoint a committee to petition congress for separate structures exclusively for divine worship at army and navy posts.

TRIBAL GOVERNMENT.

It Can Collect Taxes on Goods Imported into the Territory.

South McAlester, I. T., Oct. 20.—The United States court of appeals Wednesday rendered an opinion that the tribal government could collect tax on goods imported into the Indian territory. The merchants had resisted the payment of taxes on the ground that the Indian governments had lost jurisdiction over incorporated cities and towns, and secured an injunction from a United States court restraining the Indian officials from collecting the tax. The decision of the court of appeals reverses the decision of the district court and is to the effect that tax can be collected on all merchandise shipped into Indian territory. The case will be appealed to a higher federal court, and in the meantime no taxes will be collected pending the final decision.

ALLEGED LYNCHERS.

Five Men Arrested, Two of Them Being Peace Officers.

Charleston, S. C., Oct. 20.—Penny Martin, Benjamin Martin, Adger Butler, S. C. Eadon and J. H. Palmer, all citizens of Eutawville, the last two mentioned being peace officers, were arrested by a detective Wednesday and they were lodged at the penitentiary at Columbia under suspicion of complicity in the lynching of Kitt Bokhard. The killing took place some weeks ago. Bokhard, a Negro, was taken from the jail at Eutawville, where he was serving a short sentence for a trivial offense, and after mutilation was thrown into the Santee river with heavy weights attached.

HE LIT HIS PIPE.

At the Same Time He Ignited An Un-suspected Gas Well.

Louisville, Ky., Oct. 20.—In striking a match with which to light his pipe Tuesday Michael McCauliffe, 52 years old, employed by Senator H. S. McNutt, at his country home near Meadow Lawn, not only discovered a gas well, but was frightfully burned about the head and shoulders, and may die as a result.

Senator McNutt had contracted recently with a Louisville firm for a well on his farm. The well had been completed, and there was an abundant flow of water—in fact, the force of the stream was so great as to excite comment.

Tuesday McCauliffe made the discovery that the well had ceased flowing and was preparing to determine the cause. He was standing over it, leisurely lighting his pipe when there was an explosion, and he was hurled several feet in the air. Immediately there was a flame 20 feet high shot out from the well. McCauliffe was discovered later by some other workmen who had heard the explosion, and was removed to his home. He is dangerously hurt.

SALOONS AND POLICE.

Owing to Grand Jury Measures Jackson Is Deprived of Them.

Jackson, Ky., Oct. 20.—As a result of the vigorous measures taken by the Breathitt county grand jury, Jackson is without either saloons or policemen. Circuit Judge Riddle decided that the granting of licenses for saloons was illegal, and ordered the saloons closed. The board of trustees has retaliated by dismissing the police force on the ground that without the revenue from saloon licenses it was unable to pay policemen.

County Judge James Hargis has come to the relief of the situation by having an extra force of deputy sheriffs sworn in. This order was made, without any comment, late Tuesday, and the citizens were agreeably surprised when there was no shooting or disorder in town Tuesday night. Judge Hargis has declared that there shall be neither saloons nor "blind tigers" in Jackson.

Frankfort, Ky., Oct. 20.—In accordance with a ruling made by the attorney general of Kentucky, Secretary of State McChesney has directed that the name of Albert Schmutz be placed on the official ballot for the November election as socialist labor candidate for congress in the Fifth Kentucky district. SOUTHERN STORM.

Towns on the East Coast of Florida Were Cut Off From Communication.

SCHOONER MELROSE WRECKED.

Six, Out of the Crew of Eight and Four Passengers, Lost Their Lives.

One Victim, a Woman, Was Crushed to Death By a Falling Mast—Wind Attained a Velocity of 75 Miles An Hour.

Miami, Fla., Oct. 20.—After blowing a gale Friday, Saturday and Sunday, the storm predicted for South Florida broke over this place Sunday about midnight. In a few hours Miami and most of the towns on the east coast of Florida were cut off from communication with the outside world. Telegraph wires were blown down, and the railroad tracks were obstructed, and not until Wednesday was communication restored.

The wind attained a maximum of 75 miles per hour. The chief damage here on land was done by the rain.

In surrounding country the fruit and vegetable crops were damaged to a considerable extent.

Reports from Lemon City and Buena Vista are that the storm prevailed there with the same severity as here. No serious damage resulted.

The schooner Melrose with a crew of eight and four passengers was wrecked Saturday. Just before sunset a great wave swept over the vessel, capsizing it and throwing the passengers and crew into the sea.

Mrs. Weller, one of the passengers, was lost, but the crew managed to cling to the side of the vessel and Mr. and Mrs. Weller and the other passenger found themselves in the water within reach of a spar when the ship righted herself, the two clinging to her rigging. The mast, however, fell and crushed Mrs. Weller, her lifeless body being washed overboard. Mr. Weller had both bones of his right arm broken. The schooner drifted until Monday when all were washed overboard. Mr. Weller grasped a hatch and floated ashore, landing near Palm Beach, as did the captain, mate and two colored men. One white man and four Negroes were drowned.

Jacksonville, Fla., Oct. 20.—Five vessels have been wrecked in the storm which has been prevailing over the east coast, between Miami and Palm Beach.

The Ward line steamer Morro Castle, from New York, which arrived Wednesday afternoon, reports a rough voyage. She did not sight the Buenos Ayres.

Dalenbach each had ribs broken and sustained other severe injuries. Dabney Jones, the chauffeur, had one of his heels torn off and was hurt internally. W. B. McKinley, republican nominee for congress, who was in the automobile, escaped with a few cuts and bruises.

of New York.

For Vice President,
HENRY G. DAVIS
of West Virginia.

For Congress,
JAMES N. KEHOE
of Mason County.

Weather Forecast

Fair and colder to-night. Friday fair.

OWING to the congested condition of our columns it is impossible to give space to all the matter that is sent us. Contributors are requested to make their communications short and confine themselves more closely to the news.

"YOUNG" DAVIS is a happy appellation for the Democratic nominee for Vice President. He is standing the rigors of a strenuous campaign without a strain, giving those of his party thirty years his junior all they can do to keep pace with him. A temperate, correct life has given him a constitution of iron. With perfect physical health, he has a brain equipment that makes him master over enterprises of great moment, his executive ability being one of his strongest characteristics. The country would be fortunate indeed to have so sane and sound a man as presiding officer of the Senate.

JUDGE PARKER and Mr. Bryan are agreed on the importance of the Philippine question. Mr. Bryan predicted four years ago that imperialism was a menace that would cost this country dear in money and men. He warned the people against the militarism that demanded the expenditure of $637,000,000 and the practical enslavement of 7,000,000 Filipinos, who are entitled to their freedom. He has lived to see his dread prophecy fulfilled to the letter. This year he is again waging war against the Republicans for their course in the Philippines. Judge Parker's address on the subject at Esopus, last Saturday was an earnest plea for a return to old, safe paths, marked out by the Constitution and walked in by the fathers. It was a terrific arraignment of the imperialistic policy of Roosevelt and his party. His utterances were clear and strong, impassioned by the sincerity of his convictions, and filled with honest indignation over the wrongs of the Filipinos. No word that Judge Parker has spoken in this campaign has given such an insight into his resolute, admirable character, as this plea for justice to the little brown men, on the other side of the world.

WOOLLY BILL DEARING.

"Hon." G. W. Dearing, the Fleming County Renegade Democrat, has been selected by the Republican Boodlers to "manage" the five counties in this end of the Ninth Congressional district, during the present campaign.

The Mason County Republican Executive Committee held a meeting Monday, called no doubt for the express purpose of giving Mr. Dearing an opportunity to tell the local leaders that he is boss.

The selection of an ex-Democrat to "rule the roost" is a direct acknowledgment by Judge Bennett and his advisers that the "Old Guard" hasn't enough sense to walk on the shady side of the street in August.

Many of the local Republicans have been fighting the battles of their party for forty years, standing all the hard knocks and receiving very little of the spoils, and it seems a little rough on the Mason County crowd to see a renegade Democrat step in and take the reins from the old leaders' hands.

But Dearing don't care a fig for anybody but himself. He has an object in view—has been promised the District Attorneyship for his "strong arm" work in this fight.

Will Woolly Bill get his reward?
Sure!

SCARCITY OF TURKEYS.

Looks Like This Toothsome Bird Will Cost Several Simoleons by Thanksgiving Day.

Thanksgiving without a turkey does not sound pleasant, but there will be many a housewife who will think twice this year before she adds turkey to the menu for the national holiday, says the Catlettsburg Press.

Already the commission men are watching the signs of the times, and it is prophesied that turkeys will this year bring a higher price than for ten years past.

Why turkeys should soar in price is easily explained. Even now with the limited demand, the supply of turkeys is far from plentiful, and by Thanksgiving, local dealers say the shortage will amount to a scarcity. The cold, wet spring played havoc with the turkey "crop," and there was but a small percent, of the large broods that lived through the rigors of the cold rains.

In other words, the turkey for Thanksgiving dinner will cost in the neighborhood of $3 of hard-earned wages, it is feared.

THE PRESIDENT'S ACT

In Dining With a Negro Destroyed Race Association As An Issue, Says a Judge.

A special from Kansas City says Acting Circuit Judge Peake, formerly Minister to Switzerland, awarded to Mrs. Wilbur Staley complete divorce and custody of her daughter. Staley in a cross-bill made allegation that she frequently visited the office of a physician who was part negro. Commenting on this Judge Peake said that in the late precepts and practices of no less a personage than President Roosevelt, intimate association with negroes could not be regarded as much of an issue. The President, he remarked, had dined with a negro, thus setting the example.

The "countryman" promises to become extinct in the United States. The "rube" is to follow the mastodon, the Indian and the buffalo. The generation that comes after us will find it hard to understand some of the present-day jokes of the "b'gosh," "I swan" and "gol dern" kind. Already quite as many city folks buy gold brick in the country as country folks do in the city. In fact, the biggest and brightest gold bricks find their market in town. A city-bred man is about as apt to tangle himself up in a street car fender as Uncle Si is, and not all the people that blow out the gas come from the tall timber.—Exchange.

J. HENRY PECOR.

The Medicine That Cures.

RENO, ORE., May 11, 1903.

Wine of Cardui absolutely does cure sick women. I consider it the most valuable medicine, and it is the cheapest cure any sick woman can use, as it takes as a rule, only a few bottles to effect a complete and lasting cure. I especially recommend it for uterine or ovarian troubles, inflammation and ulceration, painful, profuse or scanty menstruation and it is a most valuable adjunct to use during the gestative period, insuring easy childbirth and speedy recovery.

It should have a place in every home as it is a true friend to wife, mother and maiden and I most heartily recommend it.

Dr. E. Buchanan

WRITER AND LECTURER.

Dr. Mrs. Buchanan is an authority on the science of medicine and certainly appreciates the great work physicians are doing for the relief of sufferers. But this does not deter her from expressing her views in praise of Wine of Cardui.

Mrs. Buchanan's high intelligence and long and successful experience render her advice of great value. MAYSVILLE PULLEYS

Awarded the Gold Medal at the World's Fair—Kentucky Exhibits Win Six Grand Prizes.

Those who have studied Kentucky's exhibits at the World's Fair expected the International Jury of Awards to recognize some of the merits of Kentucky's representation, but they could not have hoped for the result obtained—186 awards. It is indeed a remarkable record—one that no State will beat and few, if any, will equal. The outcome is more remarkable when one considers that Kentucky had only three of her citizens as members of the jury, and these three served in one department. It cannot then be said that the jury was prejudiced.

Following is a summary of the awards: Tobacco—Five grand prizes, sixteen gold medals, thirteen silver medals, twenty-two bronze medals.

Agriculture—Five gold medals, eleven silver medals, fifty-five bronze medals.

Education—Two gold medals, eight silver medals, eight bronze medals.

Minerals—One grand prize, two gold medals, ten silver medals, five bronze medals.

Forestry—Five gold medals, ten silver medals, eight bronzes.

There is expected in addition: On agriculture, one grand prize; on tobacco, a silver raised to gold; on forestry, a gold raised to a grand prize; on education, three more golds; on minerals, a gold raised to a grand prize and another gold.

In addition to above, the Ohio Valley Pulley Company of this city was awarded the gold medal on wood split pulleys.

FOUND, ONE BOX

Filled With Legal Lore, Also Two Suspicious Characters. One of Whom Was Pinched.

Policeman Senteney's attention was called to a large shoe box lying out on the river bank near his home in the West End yesterday afternoon. A couple of fellows who seemed to be standing guard acted suspiciously and the officer succeeded in landing one of them, who gave the name of Edward Denley.

It was supposed that the box was taken from a freight car, so the matter was reported to C. and O. Agent Wycoff, who opened same and found that it contained a lot of law books.

The box was addressed to K. G. Thompson, Columbus, O., and it is a mystery how it got there, as no robbery of the kind had been reported.

The fellow arrested is evidently a smooth article and knows more than he cares to tell. A razor was found on him when searched. He will be held until the find can be more thoroughly investigated.

Mr. James Kennard with her daughter-in-law and granddaughter of Pleasant Ridge were visitors in the city yesterday. Mrs. Kennard's father, the late John Greene, was a resident of this city, where he died many years ago, moving here from Washington.

A lady recently from California, but a former resident of the Bluegrass State, remarked to a friend that she liked the State of her adoption, but she loved Kentucky. Certain it is that there is an undefinable romance connected with the "dark and bloody ground" which all her daughters, as well as sons, feel and cherish though they may wander far away.

The Liberty Belles which is booked for an engagement at the Washington to-morrow night is pronounced a beauty show, a collection of twenty or more fascinating young ladies selected by Manager Fred Berger from celebrities who have already won reputation on the stage. Much time and care have been spent in selecting not only beautiful women, but also actors and actresses of merit and talent. It is said that The Liberty Belles contain more surprising novelties, more pretty songs and music, more enhancing dancing and clever specialties than any musical comedy on the road. Seats now on sale at Ray's.

In speaking of the sixteen deaths from poisoned adulterated whisky now under investigation by the New York Board of Health Secretary Robert M. Allen at his headquarters in Lexington said:

"People take their own risk when they drink whiskies which have been tampered with after being taken out of bond. The chemicals used to give appearance and taste to imitation whiskies are often poisons as well as the wood alcohol used in this case. Any distiller can have his pure bonded whisky bottled while in bond and a stamp affixed over the neck by the Government authorities, showing that it has not been tampered with when the stamp is unbroken, and the people can escape the adulterations by demanding this protection."

Clothes-Ology

Is the science of Clothes, including knowledge of cloth handicraft, in making, economy of production and artistic originality of design. A technical knowledge of the first three is important, but it is the last that reveals the creative master mind. Hence, gentlemen, our Mackinette and Cravenette Overcoats bearing the mark "R. & W." are so popular with our good dressers. They are made under above named conditions. Young gentlemen, you who have never worn one of our Rochester made Suits, just slip into one, "she'll" see the difference. There is an individuality to them that at a glance distinguishes them from all other makes.

Our Shoe business is growing to such proportions that we added the celebrated "Walk-Over" Shoe to our line. Hanan, Douglas and Walk-Over, the three best lines in the country are now found in our house.

Corduroy Suits and Pants are now in order. We have an immense stock of them. Special inducements in Corduroy Pants to merchants. Price ours before you buy them in Cincinnati; we'll save you money. When hunting season begins be sure and get one of our Sweaters.

DELIGHTFULLY ENTERTAINED

Were the Guests at Mr. and Mrs. Charles Marshall's Fifteenth Wedding Anniversary.

A passing glimpse of the cosy country home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles T. Marshall, near Marshall Station, where music, gay voices, laughter, lights and flowers held sway on Monday, October 17, hinted at something of more than ordinary interest on the tapis, and such indeed was the case, for on that occasion, more than a hundred friends from Maysville, Flemingsburg, Mayslick, Washington and the immediate neighborhood had assembled to honor the fifteenth anniversary of a happy marriage, partake of the well known hospitality of Mr. Marshall and his lovely wife and wish them "many happy returns."

The room where the bride and groom of fifteen years ago stood, with their manly and interesting son to receive their friends "from four to seven," was decorated with a profusion of blooming plants and luxuriant foliage—palms, ferns, vines—a bank on one side of the room illuminated with the soft glow of half-hidden candles, formed a becoming background for the happy family.

The same scheme of decoration was carried out in an adjoining room, where fair hands dispensed a delicate fruit punch from a solid block of ice.

The hall and dining-room bore a wealth of autumn leaves and verdure, a delight to the eye, but soon forgotten—in the dining-room, at least—in the more alluring and absorbing interest of the delicious and abundant vivands offered to the guests. The menu was truly "a triumph of culinary art," the many dainty dishes leaving nothing to be desired by the most exacting epicure. A glow of pleasure lingers in the hearts of the fortunate guests.

The cordial welcome of host and hostess on whose smiling, happy faces old Father Time has inscribed but faint record of the passage of the years—the lovely home—the joyous assemblage of friends with their eager expressions of good will haunt us like the remembrance of a beautiful dream of music, flowers and happiness.

It'll Be Sure To Be Read.

If a newspaper man desires to know how generally his effusions are read, print something that is regarded as objectionable to persons who never take his paper or pays him a cent. He will wonder how they know these things were in the paper, but will wonder in vain. There is evidently a great amount of sponging done. It might be added that he may say nice things about a man for ten years without a word from him, but make an uncompromising notice of one of his wife's aunt's second cousins and he will come in with a club to have the slander corrected.—Exchange.

Second—In event of said question being carried as required by law, the bonds of the said county shall issue for the said sum to-wit: for twenty-five thousand dollars which sum shall be evidenced by 50 bonds of the par value of $500 each, due and payable within twenty years and shall bear interest at the rate of 4 per cent. per annum, payable semi-annually, and which bonds shall be secured by a pledge of the said County Infirmary property and of the funds collected for the payment thereof.

Third—That the proceeds of the said bonds shall be used exclusively for the purpose set forth in this order.

Fourth—That this court shall provide for the collection of a Sinking Fund Tax sufficient to pay the interest and for the payment thereof, within the term for which the bonds shall be issued or sooner if desired by the Fiscal Court of Mason County, but not in any event within the term of ten years, provided that said Sinking Fund Tax shall be levied only on property which is now taxable for County Infirmary purposes in Mason County.

Maysville Citizens Gladly Testify.

It is testimony like the following that has placed "the old Quaker remedy" so far above competitors. When people right here at home raise their voice in praise there is no room left for doubt. Read the public statement of a Maysville citizen.

Mr. Elias Scudder, nurseryman, residing at 215 Casto street, says: "I had a good deal of pain at times in my right kidney and it constantly grew more persistent. When I learned of Doan's Kidney Pills I could hardly sit down in a chair, or rise without placing my hands to my back, and should I thoughtlessly bend over, it pained me severely to straighten. I procured Doan's Kidney Pills at J. Jas. Wood & Son's drugstore, corner of West Second and Market streets, and their use affected an absolute cure."

For sale by all dealers; price 50 cents a box. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, N. Y., sole agents for the United States.
